PENALTY AND INTEREST

The penalty for late payment of the tax is 5% of the tax due on Line 13 of the return. There is no penalty for late filing. Interest is accrued on the tax owed, from the due date through the date tax is paid. In accordance with § 58.1-15 of the Code of Virginia, interest is assessed at the federal underpayment rate established by the Internal Revenue Service, plus 2%.

EXTENSIONS

Virginia law allows an extension of time for filing Form EST-80 and/or paying the tax due only if a federal extension has been granted. The Department of Taxation accepts any extension granted by the Internal Revenue Service, as long as a true copy of the approved federal extension is attached to the Virginia return when filed. If a federal extension is requested for filing only, the Virginia tax is still due to be paid within nine months from the date of death. To pay the tax (estimated payment), use Form EST-80, check Box F and enter amount of tax on line 16, leave lines 1-15 blank. If the tax is not paid by the due date, penalty and interest will be assessed. Estates requesting a payment extension under Internal Revenue Code § 6166 must attach a copy of the letter requesting such extension and check Box H on page 1. Interest on the Virginia Estate Tax under this extension will NOT be reduced to correspond with the Internal Revenue Service.

AMENDED RETURNS

If filing an amended return to report changes to the original return, check Box D and attach a copy of the amended Federal Form 706. If this return is requesting a refund, include federal acceptance. To file an amended return due to a federal change, check Box E and attach a copy of the federal audit.

IMPORTANT

A COPY OF THE FEDERAL ESTATE TAX RETURN, FORM 706 MUST BE FILED WITH THIS RETURN. Be sure to include all schedules and continuation pages, approved payment extensions and/or a copy of the letter to the IRS requesting an extension under Section 6166 of the Internal Revenue Code. Do not include a copy of the will nor copies of real and personal property appraisals. This information will be requested if needed.
